1. The appointment of Marshal Rokossovsky as Minister of Defense in Poland has intensified the bad morale of the Bulgarians. The Bulgarians feel that the recent arrests is placing the country under complete Soviet domination. In view of the purges that have been carried out there are few elements left in the Central Committee of the Bulgarian Communist Party who resent the extent of Soviet control.
2. The Bulgarians are reportedly taking every advantage of Macedonian nationalism. The majority of the agents employed in anti-Yugoslav activities are of Macedonian origin. Ivan Mihailov, the Macedonian VIMRO leader, is playing both sides but is finding the game difficult. Throughout Yugoslav-Macedonia Cominform cells are being established. The Bulgarians are enlisting Macedonian aid by exploiting nationalism and anti-Yugoslav and anti-Bulgarian sentiments. The Bulgarians are aware, however, that though at present receptive, the Macedonians at the very first opportunity would use arms to fight for independence.
3. The purpose of the present trials is to discredit Tito and his regime in order to create in the Bulgarians an atmosphere favorable for armed intervention in Yugoslavia. Collective action by all the satellites is not imperative. The pretext for action could easily be found in Bulgarian-Macedonia. Here Cominform strategy would be to coordinate internal opposition to Tito in adjacent Yugoslav Macedonia with an overall plan of action already prepared by the Soviet Union.
4. In Bulgaria two-man teams are undergoing terrorist training. They will enter Yugoslavia clandestinely to assassinate personalities of the regime and sabotage strategic, industrial and military establishments. The teams will be armed with machine-guns, knives, hand grenades of Yugoslav make and revolvers. Each team will have four bombs, weighing three kilograms each, with clockwork mechanism. The chief instructor for these teams is Soviet Major Todor Boilov, who is assisted by Nikola Ramov, Bulgarian-Macedonian Police official. Identical teams of terrorists are in Albania, training in a villa four kilometers outside of Tirana.
